

UniWyo Credit Union named Best-In-State Credit Union for Wyoming by Forbes.

For the fourth year in a row, UniWyo Credit Union, was named the 2022 Best-In-State Credit Union in Wyoming by Forbes. In response to the recognition, UniWyo CEO, Dave Krause, said “It is an honor to receive this recognition, but what we are most proud of is being able to help our members reach their financial goals and make a meaningful difference in the communities that we serve. Thank you to our membership for making this possible.”

Forbes partnered with the market research firm, Statista, to conduct in-depth interviews of more than 26,000 U.S. citizens, among 4,839 banks and 5,041 credit unions, across all 50 states, on their banking relationships. Credit unions and regional institutions ranked higher overall than banks and national institutions, respectively.

Respondents ranked their overall satisfaction based on the products or services they utilized at their financial institution and if they would recommend their financial institution to their friends and family. In addition, they were surveyed on six facets of their relationship: trust, terms & conditions, branch services, digital services, customer service, and financial advice. Based on a 1-100 scale, scores ranged from 74.2 to 93.6. With over 5,000 credit unions nationwide, only 3.4% of them made the cut for the best-in-state rankings.

UniWyo was ranked second in the nation with an overall satisfaction score of 92.52, just .02 shy of the highest ranked credit union in the nation, CoVantage Credit Union in Antigo, Wisconsin.

“We continuously focus on how to best serve our membership and are always looking for new ways to do so,” said Dave Krause, UniWyo CEO. “Our mission is simple. We put people first, our members, our colleagues, everyone in our communities. In all we do, even the smallest interactions, we aim to better people’s lives. Receiving this recognition is a tribute to that.”
